Refrain: I want to be with Jesus when He comes, when He comes. And surely I will be at home when He comes, when He comes.

1. My life was broken down in pieces, just useless without dignity. But now I feel the blossoming of hope aims for eternity.

2. I know that when I come to see Him I'll have a final home to stay. And that gives courage for my daily life and makes me sing and say:
